Oooooooooo Numb. 6488.

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, August 7. 1722.

THE following Addreſs of the Corporation of Berwick upon Tweed, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Barrington one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE reſtleſs and implacable Malice of the Enemies of your Majeſty's Government, who after ſuch late Inſtances of your Majeſty's unparalleled Clemency and Goodneſs, do perſiſt in their Endeavours to overthrow ſo excellent a Conſtitution, and to make their Country a Scene of Blood and Confuſion, ſtrikes us with the utmoſt Horrour and Aſtoniſhment.

That profeſſed bigotted Papiſts ſhould enter into Meaſures that are diſtructive of the Government, and of that Family which in the laſt Age produced the moſt zealous Aſſertors, and in this, the moſt noble Defenders of the Proteſtant Religion and Intereſt, and of the Rights of Mankind, is what ſhould not Surprize us: But for Perſons who take upon them the Proteſtant Name, to engage in Deſigns to deſtroy their Holy Religion, and to diſturb the Peace and Tranquility of their Native Country, by introducing Popery, and the moſt abject Slavery, is ſo unnatural a way of acting, as muſt needs fill all the Lovers of Religion and Liberty, with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation.

It ſtill adds Madneſs to their Malice, that they ſhould enter into Deſigns againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, without the Countenance of Foreign Councils, and the Concurrence of Foreign Powers, which your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to declare are no way concerned in their Support.

As we are deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings and Privileges your Subjects enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt excellent Adminiſtration, and do from our Hearts abhor theſe Rebellious Schemes, Wicked and Ungrateful Contrivances; ſo we beg leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will always firmly adhere to, and aſſiſt your Majeſty againſt them, the Pretender, and all your Majeſty's Enemies, in all the ways that becomes your Majeſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal the Thirteenth Day of June in the Eighth Year of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign.

London, Auguſt 7.

Yeſterday arrived a Mail from France and another from Flanders.

Smyrna, June 16. It is reported that Miri-Weys in pillaging the City of Iſpahan has likewiſe taken away all the Effects belonging to the European Merchants in that Capital: That the Tartars of Dageſtan are in full March under the Command of the Bey Daoud their Leader, in order to poſſeſs themſelves of the City of Erivan; and that the Cadi of Makatte in Arabia the Happy, has alſo aſſembled a great Body of Troops deſigning to ſeize the Province of Kirman on the Perſian Gulf. It is probable Miri-Weys tolerates at preſent theſe ſort of Allies meerly through Policy, and that he will diſperſe them as ſoon as he is confirmed in the Perſian Kingdom. The Arabs, to whom the Grand Signior owes a conſiderable Sum of Money for the free Paſſage of Pilgrims who go yearly with the Caravans to Mecca, threaten the Port with a general Inſurrection, which, at the preſent Juncture, cannot but be very prejudicial to the Ottoman Empire.

His 'Majeſty reviewed this Garriſon the ſame Day, 'and dined afterwards with M. Kameke our Go'vernour; in the Afternoon he proceeded on his 'Journey towards Konigsberg, lay at Night at 'Wutzko, and 'tis believed by the Expedition his 'Majeſty makes in travelling that he will get into 'Pruſſia before To-morrow Night. The Prince 'd'Anhault Deſſau, the Colonels Dokum and Mar'witz, Lieutenant Colonel Derſchau, and the firſt 'Preſident of Pomerania, attend the King to 'Konigsberg, where his Majeſty purpoſes to make 'but a ſhort Stay of a few Days, and to return to 'Berlin by the 29th Inſtant, by reaſon the Queen 'is expected to lie in about that time.

Dreſden, July 19. 'Upon Advice of the King 'of Poland's arrival at Warſaw, ſeveral of the Mi'niſters who were left behind here, are ſet out 'thither to attend his Majeſty. An Expreſs arri'ved here the 16th Inſtant from that City, and 'tis 'rumoured that the Contents of the Diſpatches he 'has brought relate to the Electoral Prince his 'ſucceeding to the Crown of Poland, who, as ſoon 'as that Affair can be brought towards a Concluſi'on, will ſet out for Warſaw; 'tis ſaid likewiſe, 'that the Empreſs Amelia deſigns to make a Tour 'thither this Summer.

Madrid, July 28. On St. Ann's Day laſt, their Catholick Majeſties celebrated the Feſtival of the Infanta Queen of France, the Grandees and other Nobility being on that Occaſion admitted to kiſs their Majeſties Hands at Balſain, where the Muſicians of the Royal Chapel performed a fine Conſort of Muſick in the Prince of Aſturias's Apartment, the Prince and Princeſs with the Infantes being preſent, accompanied by the Ladies of Honour, and principal Officers of the Court. On the Feſtival of St. James, Patron of Spain, the Knights of that Order performed their anniverſary Ceremony in the Royal Chapel of the Court, Don Franciſco de Valança, Grand Commandeur of Caſtille, being Preſident of the Chapter. Captain Enriques, Commander of the Thereſa Frigate, being diſpatched from the Governour of Porto Rico the 13th of May laſt, arrived at Cadiz the 19th Inſtant; the Ship's Burthen is 150 Ton, and her Lading conſiſts of ſeveral kinds of Merchandize, and ſome Silver for the King's Uſe, and for private Perſons.

Paris, Aug. 12. The Mareſchal de Villeroy, the King's Governour, is exiled to his Territory of Villeroy, and was conducted thither the 10th Inſtant at Night; 'tis believed that the Mareſchal de Berwick will ſucceed the former in his Poſt of Governour to the King. Letters of the 15th paſt from Sicily, confirm the Retreat of the Turkiſh Fleet from Malta without having committed any Hoſtillity, and 'tis thought they are now ſailed towards the Coaſts of Algiers and Tripoli to defend thoſe Places in caſe of an Attack from the Dutch and Spaniards, whoſe Fleets are in thoſe Seas. M. de Verton is appointed the King's Envoy to the the Court of Muscovy, and gave a great Entertainment the 1d Instant to several Foreign Ministers. It is reported here, that the Dispute relating to the Succession to the Dominions of Tuscany and Parma, is at the Point of being terminated; and that after the Extinction of the present Male Lines of those Families, the Succession is to be divided between the Prince Don Carlos of Spain, and Prince Ferdinand of Bavaria. The King was confirmed on Sunday last in the Chapel at Versailles, by the Cardinal de Rohan. Certificates are still at 26 Livres, but the Actions are fallen to 730.
